

Beef Ribs

Saturday, April 2, 2016 10:09 AM

Cook Time: 1½ – 2½ Hrs | Min. Temp: 140° Cook times may vary*

INGREDIENTS

- 1-8 Slabs beef ribs
- PBC Beef & Game Pit Rub
- Barbecue sauce to taste, KC Masterpiece® Classic is recommended

DIRECTIONS

1. Light your Pit Barrel Cooker (PBC) according to the instructions.
2. Remove the ribs from the package, rinse gently with cold water and pat dry with paper towel.
3. Season the ribs with a moderate dusting of the Beef & Game Pit Rub.
4. Place one hook at least two bones down into the center of the thicker end (often the end with the narrower width) of each slab until it's secure.
5. Hang the ribs from the rods in the PBC, leaving space between each slab, and secure the lid.
6. Cook for an hour, then the remove ribs from the PBC, leaving hooks in place, and coat each side with barbecue sauce to taste.
7. Hang the ribs back in the PBC and cook for approximately 30 minutes until BBQ sauce is caramelized.
8. Remove ribs from the PBC (confirming doneness), and cut into individual ribs using a large knife.
9. Plate, serve and enjoy!

Chocolate Chili Recipe

Saturday, September 12, 2015 11:54

Chocolate Chili

Prep 20 min | Cook 2-3 hours | Serves 6-8

Ingredients:

- 2 tablespoons coconut oil
- 2 medium onions, diced (about 2 cups)
- 4 cloves garlic, minced (about 4 teaspoons)
- 2 pounds ground beef
- 1 teaspoon dried oregano leaves
- 2 tablespoons chili powder
- 2 tablespoons ground cumin
- 1 1/2 tablespoons unsweetened cocoa
- 1 teaspoon ground allspice
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 can (6 ounces) tomato paste
- 1 can (14.5 ounces) fire-roasted, chopped tomatoes
- 2 cups beef or chicken broth, or water (Pacific Organic Chicken Bone Broth is Whole30 compliant)

Directions:

1. Heat a large, deep pot over medium-high heat, then add the coconut oil. When the oil is melted, add onions, stir with a wooden spoon and cook until they're translucent, about 7 minutes. Add the garlic and as soon as it's fragrant, about 30 seconds, crumble the ground meat into the pan with your hands, mixing with the wooden spoon to combine. Continue to cook the meat, stirring often, until it's no longer pink.
2. In a small bowl, crush the oregano between your palms to release its flavor, then add the chili powder, cumin, cocoa, allspice, and salt. Combine with a fork, then add to the pot, stirring like you mean it. Add tomato paste and stir until combined, about 2 minutes.
3. Add the tomatoes with their juice and broth to the pot. Stir well. Bring to a boil, then reduce the heat so the chili enjoys a gentle simmer. Simmer uncovered for at least two hours. Do not skimp on the simmer! Serve in deep bowls with big spoons.

Variations:

Try a meat combo by mixing ground beef with ground turkey, pork, or bison.
Make a double batch and freeze half so you have chili-on-demand.
Top with sliced olives, diced onions, and/or avocado slices.

In a Slow Cooker

I haven't made Chocolate Chili in a slow cooker myself because I don't love stew-y things cooked in the slow cooker. But if the slow cooker is your thing, here's the way one reader adapted this recipe for their crockpot. Proceed at your own risk; I haven't tested this version myself.

1. Sauté onions in fat in a cast iron or nonstick skillet, followed by the garlic; place in the crockpot insert.
2. Put 2 pounds ground beef in the skillet (without cleaning it out) and sauté until just no longer pink. Place that (and the juices) in the crockpot.
3. Add all the spices briefly to the hot skillet to bloom the flavors, then add the tomato paste; stir to combine and cook about 1 minute. Add the beef broth and stir to combine. Transfer to the crockpot.
4. Add the chopped tomatoes to the crockpot; do not add the water listed in the recipe.
5. Cook on low for 6-8 hours.

Note: I also heard from another reader who said she just "plopped" everything into the slow cooker and let it do its thing. My recommendation is use the step-by-step method, but if you're not fussy about texture or you're in a hurry, I supposed you could try the "plop" technique.

WASSAIL

(20 servings)

Wassailing is an ancient English custom, part of the feasts and revelry of New Year's Eve and New Year's Day, which has been revived in Colonial Williamsburg. The master of the English household drank the health of those present with a bowl of spiced ale, and each in turn after him passed the bowl along and repeated the Saxon phrase Wass hael, "be whole," or "be well."

1 cup sugar

4 cinnamon sticks

lemon slices

2 cups pineapple juice

2 cups orange juice

6 cups claret

½ cup lemon juice

1 cup dry sherry

Boil sugar, cinnamon sticks, and 3 lemon slices in ½ cup water for 5 minutes and strain.

Heat but do not boil the remaining ingredients.

Combine with syrup, garnish with lemon slices, and serve hot.

Maple and Mustard Glazed Salmon

Maple and Mustard Glazed Salmon

Total Time:

20 min

Prep:

10 min

Cook:

10 min

Yield:4 servings

Level:Easy

Ingredients

Olive oil, for grilling

4 skin-on salmon fillets (6 to 8 ounces each)

Salt and ground black pepper

1/4 cup maple syrup

4 tablespoons (1/2 stick) butter, melted

2 tablespoons Dijon mustard

2 teaspoons apple cider vinegar

1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce

Grease the grill grate by brushing with oil. Preheat the grill to medium-high.

Directions

Generously sprinkle the salmon all over with salt and pepper.

In a small bowl, whisk together the syrup, butter, mustard, vinegar, Worcestershire sauce, and 1 teaspoon black pepper to make the glaze.

Brush the salmon tops generously with the glaze and place skin-side down on the grill and cook, about 4 minutes. Flip the salmon and cook until they reach the doneness you like, about 5 minutes for medium-rare. Carefully remove the fish from the grill and place skin-down on a pretty serving platter.

Beef Stroganoff

Sunday, December 11, 2016 3:20 PM

Ingredients

1 1/2 pounds beef sirloin steak, 1/2 inch thick
1 garlic clove, finely chopped
1/4 cup butter or margarine
1 1/2 cups Progresso™ beef flavored broth (from 32-ounce carton)
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
1/4 cup Gold Medal™ all-purpose flour
1 1/2 cups sour cream
3 cups hot cooked egg noodles

Directions

1. Cut beef across grain into about 1 1/2x1/2-inch strips.
2. Cook garlic in butter in 10-inch skillet over medium heat, stirring occasionally, until fragrant; remove from skillet.
3. Cook beef in same skillet until brown. Stir in 1 cup of the broth, the salt and Worcestershire sauce. Heat to boiling; reduce heat. Cover and simmer 15 minutes.
4. Stir remaining 1/2 cup broth into flour; stir into beef mixture. Add garlic mixture; heat to boiling, stirring constantly. Boil and stir 1 minute. Stir in sour cream; heat until hot (do not boil). Serve over noodles.

Twice-baked potatoes

Sunday, December 11, 2016 3:32 PM

Ingredients

8 baking potatoes, washed
3 tablespoons canola oil
2 sticks salted butter
1 cup bacon bits (fry your own!)
1 cup sour cream
1 cup Cheddar or Jack cheese (or a mix of both), plus more for topping
1/2 cup whole milk
2 teaspoons seasoned salt
3 green onions, sliced
Freshly ground black pepper

Directions

1. Preheat the oven to 400 degrees F.
2. Place the potatoes on a baking sheet. Rub them with the canola oil and bake for 1 hour, making sure they're sufficiently cooked through.
3. Slice the butter into pats. Place in a large mixing bowl and add the bacon bits and sour cream. Remove the potatoes from the oven. Lower the heat to 350 degrees F.
4. With a sharp knife, cut each potato in half lengthwise. Scrape out the insides into the mixing bowl, being careful not to tear the shell. Leave a small rim of potato intact for support. Lay the hollowed out potato shells on a baking sheet.
5. Smash the potatoes into the butter, bacon and sour cream. Add the cheese, milk, seasoned salt, green onions and black pepper to taste and mix together well. (IMPORTANT: If you plan to freeze the twice-baked potatoes, do NOT add the green onions.)
6. Fill the potato shells with the filling. I like to fill the shells so they look abundant and heaping. Top each potato with a little more grated cheese and pop 'em in the oven until the potato is warmed through, 15 to 20 minutes.

Blackened Salmon

Sunday, December 11, 2016 3:35 PM

Ingredients

2 tablespoons ground paprika
1 tablespoon ground cayenne pepper
1 tablespoon onion powder
2 teaspoons salt
1/2 teaspoon ground white pepper
1/2 teaspoon ground black pepper
1/4 teaspoon dried thyme
1/4 teaspoon dried basil
1/4 teaspoon dried oregano
4 salmon fillets, skin and bones removed

Directions

1. In a small bowl, mix paprika, cayenne pepper, onion powder, salt, white pepper, black pepper, thyme, basil and oregano.
2. Brush salmon fillets on both sides with 1/4 cup butter, and sprinkle evenly with the cayenne pepper mixture. Drizzle one side of each fillet with 1/2 remaining butter.
3. In a large, heavy skillet over high heat, cook salmon, butter side down, until blackened, 2 to 5 minutes. Turn fillets, drizzle with remaining butter, and continue cooking until blackened and fish is easily flaked with a fork.

When in Doubt, Make a Melty Chocolate Sandwich for Dinner

Tuesday, February 7, 2017 9:16 PM

There aren't many things I'm certain of. What will I be doing in 10 years? Will I go to the gym today? Is it acceptable to wear white jeans in February? And—perhaps the most daily, pressing question—what will I make for dinner?

The answer to this is usually a hodgepodge of what's in the fridge and pantry (i.e. sautéed kale, tempeh, sunflower seeds, and tahini dressing or eggs, hot sauce, and tortillas). These dinners fall into the category of "wholesome" without hitting you over the head with hemp seeds. But what about when there are no greens in the crisper or a source of protein in sight? I make a chocolate sandwich.

Grilled Chocolate Sandwiches by Alice Medrich

A chocolate sandwich is hot, crunchy, and melty. It feels indulgent, yet substantial. And if you feel like going all in, you can even add a scoop of ice cream—the pleasing contrast of temperatures is only outshone by how the ice cream saturates the bread, softening it just slightly. There's a sprinkling of salt and cinnamon sugar that add that extra something, too.

For two chocolate sandwiches, you'll need the following:

- Unsalted butter
- 4 slices sweet or sourdough French bread
- About 2 ounces broken or chopped semisweet or bittersweet chocolate (you could also use 1/3 cup chocolate chip)
- Coarse sea salt (the recipe says this is optional, but I don't think so)
- 1 tablespoon sugar mixed with 1/8 teaspoon ground cinnamon
- Vanilla ice cream, for when it's one of those days

About 10 minutes before dinner, butter one side of all of the slices of bread. In a large skillet, cook the slices butter side-down until golden on one side. Cover two of the slices with chocolate. Place the other two slices on top of the chocolate slices, butter side-up. Cook, flipping the sandwiches as necessary, until the chocolate gets all melty and the sandwiches are browned on both sides.

Flaky salt's the way to go here. Photo by James Ransom

Serve right away with a sprinkling of salt and cinnamon-sugar. Maybe you'll top them with a scoop of ice cream, or maybe not. Regardless, eat immediately.

Why You Should Serve Scotch Eggs at Your Next Party

Thursday, December 21, 2017 8:28 AM

During the holiday season, big parties, bigger meals, and show-stopping main courses usually get all the attention. We've partnered with Eggland's Best to shine a light on the less flashy moments and simpler dishes that are still just as important. Each one—including this finger-friendly scotch eggs recipe—is made more delicious and nutritious with EB eggs.

Entertaining during the holidays is a balancing act. I want to prepare the most delicious, festive foods while also maximizing time with my guests, which translates to doing as much prep and cooking ahead of time as possible. In addition to preparing the perfect playlist and ironing the napkins the night before my holiday cocktail party, I also opt to serve snacks that can be ready to go when guests arrive.

Ideally, these bites are completely indulgent and totally unexpected...which is why, this year, I'm cooking up Scotch eggs—or, rather, a variety of Scotch eggs. With endless variations, these crispy, savory bites are the perfect accompaniment to a pitcher of gin cocktails (which I also make in advance).

Scotch eggs are a British pub staple, based on the Indian/Pakistani dish nargisi kofta. A hard- (or soft-) boiled egg is wrapped in ground meat, then given a quick dip in an egg wash and a crunchy coating, before being deep fried until crispy. Once fried, the finished Scotch eggs can be kept warm in the oven—leaving your hands free to take guests' coats and serve them a cocktail.

Because the ingredients all play nice with many flavors, Scotch eggs present an opportunity for you to unleash your creativity. Once you've nailed the basic steps, the flavor and ingredient combinations are endless. To make Scotch eggs without a recipe, follow these easy guidelines:

Scotch Eggs by lorigoldsby

1. Boil the Perfect Egg

To cook your eggs, place them in a pot and cover with just enough water so that all eggs are submerged. Heat on high, uncovered, turning off the heat just before you get to a rolling boil. Remove the pot from the heat, cover it, and allow your eggs to sit in the water for six to 12 minutes, depending on desired doneness. Transfer them to a bowl of ice water, and allow the eggs to cool for about five minutes before you peel them.

Variation: The big decision here is choosing between a hard cooked yolk, or one on the runny side. You can't go wrong with either—it simply boils down to preference. For a jammy, soft yolk, leave the eggs in for six minutes; for a bright yellow, medium-soft yolk, leave them in for eight minutes; to get a fully hard-boiled egg, let your eggs sit for the full 12 minutes.

15 Tips for Perfectly Cooked Eggs + 100 Ways to Eat Them by Lindsay-Jean Hard

2. Choose your coatings

Here's where the fun really begins. Once your eggs are peeled, you're going to give them two coatings: sausage first, then a dusting of flour, a dip in beaten egg, and a roll in breading. (Want them to be extra crispy? Double the breading.) At this point, they can be put in the fridge until it's time to fry.

Variation: This is the place to let your taste shine. Like your Scotch eggs spicy? Use chorizo or hot Italian sausage. More of a sweet tooth? Try chicken-apple or breakfast sausage. Plus, you can mix any fresh herbs into your sausage for more flavor and brightness.

Breadcrumbs are a natural choice for breading, but here, too, there are endless opportunities for variation on that front, too. Crushed cornflakes, panko, or seasoned stuffing mix are all ways to add your own spin.

Deep Frying Without Fear by Marian Bull

What's the Best Oil for Frying? by Elana Carlson

3. Fry away

To cook the Scotch eggs, heat a few inches neutral oil (like vegetable oil) to 350°F and fry the sausage-covered, breaded eggs for about 5 minutes, just until the outsides are a deep brown and the sausage is cooked through. Drain on paper towels and sprinkle them with salt. At this point, you can keep the Scotch eggs warm on a sheet pan in a 250°F oven, and they'll be ready to serve whenever you are.

4. Serve 'Em Up

Now is the time to break out your most festive toothpicks. Scotch eggs can be served whole, halved, quartered, or even sliced into rounds. Add a dipping sauce or a crisp and pickled accompaniment and call yourself entertainer of the year.

5 Tips for Better Homemade Sausage by ryan@4505meats.com

Once you know the basic rules for Scotch eggs, the flavor combinations are endless. Here are some ideas to get you started — and please feel free to share your own ideas with us in the comments!

Sweet and Crispy: Use breakfast sausage and bread with crushed Cornflakes. Serve with a mustard-mayo dipping sauce.

Italian-Style: Use sweet or spicy Italian sausage, mix oregano into the bread crumbs, and serve with marinara sauce.

Spanish-Inspired: Use Chorizo as the sausage, and Panko mixed with smoky paprika for the breading. Serve with a lemon-garlic aioli.

We're shining a light on some of the holiday season's simpler dishes, all made more delicious with EB eggs. Eggland's Best credits the extra vitamins and minerals in their eggs (like ten times more vitamin E and six times more vitamin D) to an all-vegetarian hen feed. When using EB eggs for this recipe, note that fresher eggs can be harder to peel! Since all EB eggs are packaged within 72 hours of being laid, you'll want to let them sit for about a week before hard boiling for the easiest peeling.

Baked Eggnog French Toast

Saturday, December 23, 2017 5:04 PM

Golden, egg-rich challah is the best choice for this French toast inspired by holiday eggnog, since it does a great job of soaking up the rich custard. And because the entire dish can be assembled the night before it's baked, it's the perfect dish for serving to a house full of holiday guests with a minimum of fuss.

Baked Eggnog French Toast

Ingredients

- 1 loaf day-old challah, about 1 lb. (500 g), cut into slices 1 inch (2.5 cm) thick
- 8 eggs
- 2 cups (16 fl. oz./500 ml) milk
- 1/2 cup (4 fl. oz./125 ml) heavy cream
- 1 cup (8 oz./250 g) granulated sugar
- 1/3 cup (3 fl. oz./80 ml) bourbon
- 1 Tbs. vanilla extract
- 1 tsp. freshly ground nutmeg
- Confectioners' sugar for garnish
- Maple syrup for serving (optional)

Directions

1. Generously butter a 2 3/4-quart (2.75-l) Dutch oven or deep casserole dish. Arrange the bread slices in the prepared dish, overlapping them slightly.
2. In a bowl, whisk together the eggs, milk, cream, granulated sugar, bourbon, vanilla and nutmeg until the sugar is dissolved. Pour the liquid evenly over the bread, turning some of the slices if necessary so that they have all absorbed some of the liquid. Cover and refrigerate for at least 2 hours, or up to overnight.
3. Preheat an oven to 350°F (180°C).
4. Transfer the dish to the oven and bake, uncovered, until the French toast is puffy and the top of the bread is lightly browned, about 50 minutes, tenting the dish with aluminum foil if the top is getting too brown. Remove from the oven and let stand for 10 minutes. Dust generously with confectioners' sugar and serve warm, passing maple syrup alongside. Serves 6 to 8.

AWESOME ARTICHOKE DIP

Mike Muckleroy

- 1 (14-oz.) can artichoke hearts, drained and chopped
- 1 cup Hellmann's mayonnaise

- 1 cup mozzarella cheese, shredded
- 1/4 cup Parmesan cheese
- 1/8 tsp. cayenne red pepper

Mix artichokes, mayonnaise, mozzarella cheese, Parmesan cheese and cayenne pepper all together. Extra cayenne pepper makes it even better. Sprinkle a little extra Parmesan cheese and cayenne pepper on top. Bake in a casserole dish at 325° to 350° for 20 to 25 minutes, until brown on top. Serve with Wheat Thins and cold beer.

BACON BREADSTICKS

Dee Child

- 1 pkg. breadsticks (pencil size-- approximately 6 to 8 inches long)

- 1 (16-oz.) pkg. lean bacon

Wrap each breadstick with one slice bacon. Microwave the breadstick for about 4 minutes, depending on your microwave. Add a half minute to each cooking until bacon is crisp. Serve to surprised guests. Delicious. (If you buy smaller breadsticks, you can cut the bacon in half slices and cook a shorter amount of time.)

BAKED ARTICHOKE SPREAD

Melissa Bianco

- 1 cup mayonnaise
- 1 heaping cup grated Parmesan cheese
- 2 (6-oz.) jars Progresso artichoke hearts, drained & chopped to small chunks

- 2 heaping cups shredded mozzarella cheese
- 1 1/2 tsp. garlic powder
- 1 tsp. paprika

Preheat oven to 350°. In a large bowl, thoroughly mix the mayonnaise, Parmesan cheese, artichokes, mozzarella cheese and garlic powder. Transfer the mixture to an 8 x 8 inch baking dish. Bake 30 minutes, or until the surface is golden brown and bubbly. Sprinkle with paprika and serve immediately. Because of all the cheese, if this cools down it can easily be reheated in the oven at 350° just until the cheese melts again. That is...if there is any left!

BANANA-STRAWBERRY SMOOTHIE

Mary E. Mawdsley, 6th Grade

- 1 (8-oz.) carton vanilla yogurt (can be low fat)
- 1 (8-oz.) carton plain yogurt (can be low fat)

- 2 ripe bananas
- 3/4 c. milk
- 1 c. frozen or fresh strawberries

Place all ingredients in a blender. Be sure to slice the fruit as it will blend easier and more quickly. Pour into glasses and enjoy. As an alternative, any fruit may be substituted for variety. I have used blueberries and fresh peaches but always use two ripe bananas. This drink is filling, healthy and a good source of nutrition and energy. Don't forget to place the lid on tight before blending; otherwise, you will be wearing your smoothie! Can be stored in the refrigerator in an airtight container for two days only.

BASIL CHEESE TORTA

Sally Boyd

3 cups fresh basil leaves
4 to 6 cloves garlic
 $\frac{1}{2}$ cup pine nuts
 $\frac{3}{4}$ cup shredded Parmesan cheese
2 to 3 T. Romano cheese
 $\frac{2}{3}$ cup olive oil
4 red bell peppers
1 T. olive oil
boiling water, to cover tomatoes
 $\frac{1}{2}$ cup dried tomatoes
3 T. fresh basil, chopped
1 T. balsamic vinegar
2 to 3 cloves garlic, minced
 $\frac{1}{2}$ tsp. salt

$\frac{1}{2}$ tsp. fresh rosemary, finely chopped
 $\frac{1}{4}$ tsp. ground red pepper
1 (8-oz.) pkg. cream cheese, softened
1 (4-oz.) pkg. feta cheese
2 T. butter or margarine, softened
2 (6-oz.) pkgs. provolone cheese slices
 $\frac{1}{4}$ cup pine nuts, toasted and chopped
pine nuts, fresh basil for garnishment
French baguette slices

Make PESTO SAUCE by processing 3 cups fresh basil and 4 to 6 garlic cloves in a food processor until chopped. Add $\frac{1}{2}$ cup pine nuts, $\frac{3}{4}$ cup shredded Parmesan cheese and 2 to 3 tablespoons Romano cheese until blended, stopping to scrape down sides. With processor running, pour $\frac{2}{3}$ cup olive oil through food chute in a slow steady stream, process until smooth. (may use a purchased thick pesto instead) Make ROASTED RED PEPPER SALSA by baking red bell peppers on an aluminum foil-lined baking sheet at 500° for 12 minutes or until peppers look blistered turning once. Place peppers in a heavy-duty Ziploc plastic bag; seal and let stand 10 minutes to loosen skins. Peel peppers and remove and discard seeds. Coarsely chop peppers. Drizzle with 1 tablespoon olive oil and set aside. (Or purchase roasted red bell peppers in a jar). Pour boiling water to cover over dried tomatoes. Let stand 3 minutes; drain and coarsely chop. Stir together red bell peppers, tomatoes, 3 tablespoons chopped fresh basil, 1 tablespoon balsamic vinegar, 2 to 3 minced garlic cloves, $\frac{1}{2}$ tsp. salt, $\frac{1}{2}$ tsp. rosemary and $\frac{1}{4}$ tsp. red pepper. Cover and chill. To make BASIL-CHEESE TORTA, process cream cheese, feta cheese and butter or margarine in blender or food processor until smooth. Stir in Pesto sauce, blending well. Line an 4 x 8 inch loaf pan with plastic wrap, allowing 1 inch to hang over on each side. Arrange $\frac{1}{3}$ of cheese slices on bottom and up sides of pan. Layer evenly with half of pesto mixture, $\frac{1}{3}$ cup Roasted Red Pepper Salsa, 2 tablespoons pine nuts, and half of remaining cheese slices. Repeat layers, ending with cheese slices, gently pressing each layer. Fold cheese slices toward center. Cover and chill 8 hours. Invert torta onto a serving platter. Top with $\frac{1}{3}$ cup red pepper salsa; garnish if desired with fresh basil or pine nuts. Serve with remaining salsa and toasted French baguette slices.

BRANDIED CAMEMBERT WITH DRIED CHERRIES AND WALNUTS

Tabatha Dorrian

1 (1 lb) round of soft Camembert cheese, rind on
1/4 c. brandy
1/2 c. dried sour cherries

1/4 c. chopped toasted walnuts
3 walnut halves for garnish
1 small loaf French bread, cut into small slices

Use a sharp paring knife to make a cavity in the Camembert as follows: Insert the knife 1/2 inch in from the outside edge of the round and cut a circle 1/2 inch deep in top of the cheese. Use the knife to gently loosen the top rind until it can be removed in one piece. Set aside. With a teaspoon, scoop out enough of the soft cheese to form a cavity, 1/2 inch deep. Trim the underside of the top of the rind that was removed so that it is flat. Pierce the inside and outer sides of cheese all over with the tines of a fork. Drizzle 1/2 tablespoon of the brandy over the cavity. Combine the dried cherries and chopped walnuts in a bowl and pack into the cheese. Place the lid on top and press firmly into place. Arrange the 3 walnut halves in the center of the lid. Pierce the lid well with the tines of a fork. Brush the top and sides with more brandy. Wrap the cheese in a clean kitchen towel. Sprinkle the towel liberally with the remaining brandy. Place the cheese in a plastic bag and seal tightly. Refrigerate for at least 24 hours or up to 3 days before baking. When ready to bake the cheese, preheat the oven to 325°. Remove cheese from the plastic bag and towel. Place on a baking sheet lined with foil or parchment paper. Bake on the center shelf of the oven until the cheese is warm and just softened. Watch carefully to prevent overheating; the cheese should not spill out of the rind. Remove and cool on the baking sheet for 3-5 minutes. To serve, lift the cheese on the foil to a serving tray. Cut the excess foil away. Garnish the tray with parsley or at Christmas with holly and red berries. Will serve 6 to 8.

PEACH PINK LEMONADE PUNCH

Dee Child

1 can pink lemonade concentrate
2 (20-oz.) bottles Nestea peach
flavored green tea

1 can Fresca (12 oz.)
1 cup vodka

Mix lemonade concentrate, green tea and Fresca. For COCKTAIL HOUR, add vodka.

PEPPERONI PINWHEELS

Nancy Wallace

1 c. pepperoni, finely chopped
(approximately 3-½ oz.)
1 c. mozzarella cheese, shredded

½ tsp. oregano
1 egg, slightly beaten
2 (8-oz.) cans crescent rolls

Preheat oven to 375°. In a small bowl blend pepperoni, cheese, oregano and egg. Separate crescent rolls into 8 triangles. Firmly press perforation to seal. Spread about ¼ cup of pepperoni mixture on each. Start at short end and roll up. Seal. Cut into 6 pieces. Place cut-side down on ungreased cookie sheet. Bake for 12 to 15 minutes, until golden brown. Serve warm. Yield: 48.

NOTE: may be refrigerated for 2 hours. Reheat at 350° for 10 to 12 minutes.

PICO DE GALLO (Spicy relish)

Robert Fraser

2 large ripe tomatoes

2 T. minced cilantro leaves

2 or 4 serrano chiles, seeded, finely

(Spicy relish)

2 large ripe tomatoes
1 medium white onion
2 large garlic cloves
 $\frac{2}{3}$ cup cucumber, peeled, seeded,
finely chopped
5 radishes, finely diced

2 T. minced cilantro leaves
3 or 4 Serrano chiles, seeded, finely
chopped
1 T. white wine vinegar
1 T. fresh lime juice
1 tsp. salt, (to taste)

Mix tomatoes, onion, garlic, cucumber, radishes, cilantro, (go easy on the cilantro), chiles and vinegar. Sprinkle lime juice over all of it and mix. Salt to taste, Kosher is good. Put in a bowl, cover and put in the fridge for a while so the flavors mix. This is so good with so many foods!! Don't leave out the radishes, they really add a lot.

RADISH CANAPES

Tabatha Dorrian

12 large radishes
8-oz. cream cheese, softened
1 T. fresh parsley, finely minced
1 tsp. fresh chives, finely chopped

1 T. freshly squeezed lemon juice
pumpnickel or rye bread, thin
sliced, halved and quartered

Finely shred 8 radishes and squeeze out moisture. In a small bowl, mash cream cheese with a fork and gently mash in parsley, chives, lemon juice and radishes. Salt to taste. Toast slices of bread and just before serving, spread radish mixture on toasted bread. Thinly slice and halve remaining radishes and arrange decoratively on top of cheese toast. Serve.

RANCH DIP

Sue Pinkley

1 pkg. Hidden Valley Ranch dressing mix
1 (16-oz.) container sour cream

1 cup shredded cheese

softened
1 (5-oz.) jar dried beef, chopped

$\frac{1}{2}$ tsp. garlic powder
1 c. sour cream
2 T. onion, minced
1 dash Worcestershire sauce

Preheat oven to 350°. Sauté pecans in butter. Combine pecans with remaining ingredients. Spread in a shallow baking pan.

1 (8-oz.) jar dried beef, chopped

Preheat oven to 350°. Sauté pecans in butter. Combine pecans with remaining ingredients. Spread in a shallow baking pan (a quiche dish works well). Bake for 20 minutes at 350° and serve warm with party crackers, flatbreads or chips. It's also good on small croissants as party sandwiches.

RED SALSA

Mary Bradford

2 to 4 T. onion, finely chopped
2 cloves garlic, minced
2 cups boiling water
3 lg. ripe tomatoes

2 to 4 Serrano peppers, minced
2 to 4 T. cilantro, minced
1 to 2 T. lemon or lime juice
salt and pepper

Put the onion and garlic into a strainer and pour 2 cups boiling water over them. Drain thoroughly and discard the water. Let cool. In the mean time peel and chop the tomatoes removing the seeds. Combine the tomatoes with the onion, garlic, peppers, cilantro, lemon juice, salt and pepper. Refrigerate to allow flavors to blend. MAKES ABOUT 2 CUPS.

SALMON PARTY BALL

Pat Holland

2 cups canned salmon, skin and bones removed
1/4 tsp. salt
1 (8-oz.) pkg. cream cheese, softened
1 T. lemon juice

2 tsp. onion, grated
1 tsp. prepared horseradish
1/4 tsp. liquid smoke
1/2 c. chopped pecans
3 tsp. snipped parsley

Drain and flake salmon. Combine salt, cream cheese, lemon juice, onion, horseradish and liquid smoke. Add the salmon, mixing thoroughly. Form mixture into a ball and refrigerate until firm. Coat the surface of the ball with nuts and parsley (optional). Serve with crackers.

SPINACH ARTICHOKE DIP

Natalie Jordan

1 block frozen spinach
 1 can artichokes
 1 (8-oz.) jar mayonnaise
 1 (8-oz.) block cream cheese
 2 1/2 c. shredded cheese (Colby jack works best)

1/2 c. Parmesan cheese
 1 bag bagel chips or other chips/
 crackers as desired

Thaw and drain spinach. Dry spinach on a paper towel as necessary and set aside. Drain artichokes and cut into small pieces. Add mayonnaise, cream cheese and shredded cheese to a mixing bowl and stir. Add spinach and artichokes to mixture and stir until well mixed. Add mixture to a 2 quart oven-safe bowl, cover and bake at 350° for 20 minutes. After 20 minutes, remove lid and sprinkle Parmesan cheese on top of mixture. Bake uncovered for an additional 5 minutes. Allow to cool for 5 minutes and serve with chips.

STUFFED MUSHROOMS

Susan Ison

1 (8-oz.) pkg. cream cheese, softened
 1/2 cup Parmesan cheese
 1 T. parsley, chopped
 1 1/2 tsp. rosemary, chopped
 1/2 tsp. thyme, chopped

1 1/4 tsp. Worcestershire sauce
 pinch salt
 pinch pepper
 pinch ground nutmeg

SUSIE'S SALSA

Susie Fuller

1/6 red onion
 1 fresh jalapeño or several jalapeño slices
 1/3 green pepper
 2 chili peppers
 1/4 bunch fresh cilantro
 dash Tabasco
 2 shakes red wine vinegar

1/2 tsp. sugar
 1 clove garlic
 1/2 sm. lime - squeeze and use juice
 1 tsp. cumin
 2 shakes garlic salt
 2 shakes chili powder
 1 (28 oz.) can whole peeled tomatoes

Once the above is coarsely chopped, add just the tomatoes (not the juice) from one 28 ounce can of whole peeled tomatoes. Turn food processor on intermittently just until tomatoes are blended with the rest of the ingredients. DO NOT over chop or pulverize.  This salsa is great when made with fresh tomatoes. The amount you use will depend on size of the tomatoes and how hot you want the salsa to be. (Maybe about 4 medium sized tomatoes.) I've also mixed a smaller can of tomatoes with fresh tomatoes for this recipe

1. In a mug, mix together the flour, cocoa powder, sugar, sumac, and salt. Add the egg and the olive oil and mix until completely blended. Stir in the white chocolate chunks. Microwave for 60–90 seconds, or until your desired doneness. Serve with vanilla ice cream or whipped cream if you have.

Belgian Hot Chocolate

Friday, March 9, 2018

4:11 PM

1 quart (1l) half-and-half or whole milk

8 ounces (230g) bittersweet or semisweet chocolate, chopped

4 ounces (115g) milk chocolate, chopped

tiny pinch of salt

1/2 teaspoon ground cinnamon

1. In a medium saucepan, warm about one-third of the half-and-half or milk, with the chopped chocolates and salt, stirring until the chocolate is melted.

2. Whisk in the remaining half-and-half or milk, heating until the mixture is warmed through. Add the cinnamon.

3. Use a hand-held blender, or a whisk, and mix the hot chocolate until it's completely smooth. Serve very warm.

Serving: In Belgium, this is often served with a poof of whipped cream and chocolate curls.

Storage: The hot chocolate mixture can be stored in the refrigerator for up to one week.

White Chicken Chili

Thursday, October 4, 2018 5:55 PM

Servings: 4-6
Prep Time: 20 Minutes
Cook Time: 35 Minutes
Total Time: 55 Minutes

INGREDIENTS

- 2 (14.5-ounce) cans white beans, rinsed and drained
- 4 cups low sodium chicken broth, divided
- 1 tablespoon vegetable oil
- 1 large yellow onion, diced
- 1 jalapeño pepper, seeded and minced (see note)
- 2 medium poblano peppers, seeded and diced (see note)
- 4 garlic cloves, minced
- 1 tablespoon ground cumin
- 1-1/2 teaspoons ground coriander
- 1 teaspoon ancho chili powder
- Salt
- 1 rotisserie chicken, skin removed and shredded (about 4 cups)
- 3/4 cup frozen corn
- 1/4 cup fresh chopped cilantro
- 1 tablespoon fresh lime juice, from one lime, plus more to taste

OPTIONAL FOR SERVING

- Sour cream
- Crushed tortilla chips
- Lime wedges

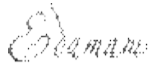

INSTRUCTIONS

1. In a food processor, blend 1/2 of the beans (1 can) with 1 cup of the chicken broth. Set aside both the puréed beans and the remaining whole beans.
2. Add the vegetable oil to a large pot or Dutch oven and heat it over medium heat. Add the onion, jalapeño pepper and poblano peppers and sauté until soft, about 4 minutes. Add the garlic and sauté for one minute more. Add the cumin, coriander and ancho chili powder and continue to cook, stirring frequently, for 1 minute more to toast the spices. Add the chicken stock, puréed beans and 1/2 teaspoon of salt; bring to a boil. Reduce the heat to low and simmer, uncovered, for 20 minutes.
3. Stir in the shredded rotisserie chicken, reserved whole beans, corn, cilantro and lime juice; bring back to a simmer and cook until everything is heated through, about 5 minutes. Taste and adjust seasoning with more salt and lime juice, if necessary. (The broth will be somewhat soupy -- that's how it is supposed to be. It thickens the longer it sits; see note below.) Serve the chili in individual bowls with a dollop of sour cream, crushed tortilla chips, and lime wedges.
4. Note: The seeds and ribs in the peppers hold all of the heat. I don't use them to keep the chili mild and family-friendly, but if you like a spicy chili, save them and stir some in at the end. (If you do touch the seeds, be sure to wash your hands well and avoid touching your eyes.)
5. Note: The chili thickens as it sits. If you make it ahead of time, you will probably need to add more broth or water to thin it out.

6. Note: Nutrition info does not include optional toppings.
7. Freezer-Friendly Instructions: The chili can be frozen for up to 3 months. Reheat it on the stovetop over medium-low heat until hot. (The chili will thicken up some when frozen, so you'll likely need to add some broth when reheating.)

Cook and stir until the meat and onion are browned, about 10 minutes. While beef is cooking, mix together flour, paprika, salt, and pepper in a bowl. Sprinkle the flour mixture over the browned meat, and stir to coat.
2. In a large soup pot, pour in the beef broth and water, and stir in the parsley, celery leaves, bay leaf, and marjoram. Stir in beef mixture, and bring to a boil. Reduce heat to medium-low, cover the pot, and simmer, stirring occasionally, until meat is tender, about 45 minutes.
3. Mix in the potatoes, carrots, celery, tomato paste, and corn; bring the soup back to a simmer, and cook uncovered, stirring occasionally, until the vegetables are tender and the soup is thick, 15 to 20 minutes. Remove bay leaf and serve hot.

Footnotes

- Cook's Note
- You can double this batch and freeze some as well; refrigerating makes the soup thicker and more rich.
- Tip
- Aluminum foil helps keep food moist, ensures it cooks evenly, keeps leftovers fresh, and makes clean-up easy.

Minestrone Soup

Thursday, October 4, 2018 6:19 PM

- 4 tablespoons extra-virgin olive oil, divided
- 1 medium yellow onion, chopped
- 2 medium carrots, peeled and chopped
- 2 medium ribs celery, chopped
- 1/4 cup tomato paste
- 2 cups chopped seasonal vegetables (potatoes, yellow squash, zucchini, butternut squash, green beans or peas all work)
- 4 cloves garlic, pressed or minced
- 1/2 teaspoon dried oregano
- 1/2 teaspoon dried thyme
- 1 large can (28 ounces) diced tomatoes, with their liquid (or 2 small 15-ounce cans)
- 4 cups (32 ounces) vegetable broth
- 2 cups water
- 1 teaspoon fine sea salt
- 2 bay leaves
- Pinch of red pepper flakes
- Freshly ground black pepper
- 1 cup whole grain orecchiette, elbow or small shell pasta
- 1 can (15 ounces) Great Northern beans or cannellini beans, rinsed and drained, or 1 1/2 cups cooked beans
- 2 cups baby spinach, chopped kale or chopped collard greens
- 2 teaspoons lemon juice
- Freshly grated Parmesan cheese, for garnishing (optional)

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Warm 3 tablespoons of the olive oil in a large Dutch oven or stockpot over medium heat. Once the oil is shimmering, add the chopped onion, carrot, celery, tomato paste and a pinch of salt. Cook, stirring often, until the vegetables have softened and the onions are turning translucent, about 7 to 10 minutes.
2. Add the seasonal vegetables, garlic, oregano and thyme. Cook until fragrant while stirring frequently, about 2 minutes.
3. Pour in the diced tomatoes and their juices, broth and water. Add the salt, bay leaves and red pepper flakes. Season generously with freshly ground black pepper.
4. Raise heat to medium-high and bring the mixture to a boil, then partially cover the pot with the lid, leaving about a 1" gap for steam to escape. Reduce heat as necessary to maintain a gentle simmer.
5. Cook for 15 minutes, then remove the lid and add the pasta, beans and greens. Continue simmering, uncovered, for 20 minutes or until the the pasta is cooked al dente and the greens are tender.
6. Remove the pot from the heat, then remove the bay leaves. Stir in the lemon juice and remaining tablespoon of olive oil. Taste and season with more salt (I usually add about 1/4 teaspoon more) and pepper until the flavors really sing. Garnish bowls of soup with grated Parmesan, if you'd like.

Author Notes: This extra buttery potato side dish (inspired by Joël Robuchon's iconic recipe) is richer, creamier, smoother and, dare I say, better than traditional mashed potatoes. —Grant Melton

Serves: 8

Prep time: 30 min

Cook time: 45 min

Ingredients

- 3 pounds yukon gold potatoes, rinsed and scrubbed
- Salt
- 1 3/4 cups whole milk
- 2 cloves of garlic, halved
- 1 pound butter, cut into 1-inch chunks
- 1/2 teaspoon finely ground white pepper

Directions

1. Place the potatoes in a single layer in a large pot. Cover with at least 1-inch of water. Season with one tablespoon of salt. Place over medium heat and let simmer for 40-45 minutes or until potatoes are easily pierced with a knife. Once cooked, remove the potatoes from the water to an ice bath and let cool slightly. Discard the water from the pot and wipe clean with a kitchen towel and set back on the stove top.
2. Once the potatoes are cool enough to handle, use a paring knife to remove the skins from the potatoes. Put the potatoes through a food mill or potato ricer into a mixing bowl. Set aside.
3. Place the milk into the pot and bring to a simmer. Add the garlic and let it steep for a few minutes or until garlic is a fragrant and beginning to soften slightly. Discard the garlic and turn the heat to low. Using a whisk, whisk in the butter a few chunks at a time until the butter is well incorporated. Once the butter is melted, add in the riced potatoes and, using a wooden spoon or rubber spatula, stir to incorporate. Once smooth, season with two teaspoons of salt and white pepper.

4. Pour the potatoes into a serving dish and serve hot. If serving later, pour into a casserole dish, cover with foil and keep warm in a 250°F oven until ready to serve.

LEFTOVER TURKEY POT PIE EMPANADAS

5 Freestyle Points 174 calories

TOTAL TIME:40 minutes

PREP TIME:10 minutes

COOK TIME:30 minutes

These Leftover Turkey Pot Pie Empanadas, or hand pies are a delicious way to use up your leftover Thanksgiving turkey!

INGREDIENTS:

- 1 teaspoon unsalted butter
- 1/4 cup chopped onion
- 1/4 cup chopped celery
- 2 tablespoons chopped fresh parsley
- 1 clove garlic, minced
- 1 tablespoon corn starch
- 1/2 cup low sodium chicken or turkey broth
- 1 1/4 cups leftover shredded cooked turkey breast (5 ounces)
- 3/4 cup frozen peas and carrots
- 3/4 teaspoon kosher salt
- 1/8 tsp ground black pepper
- 1/2 tsp dried thyme
- 10 frozen Goya Empanada Discos (the ones for baking), thawed
- cooking spray
- 1 large egg, whisked

DIRECTIONS:

1. Heat a skillet over medium heat, melt butter. Add onion, celery, and parsley cooking until onions are translucent. Add minced garlic, cooking for an additional minute.
2. Combine the broth and cornstarch together and mix well.
3. Add the turkey, frozen peas and carrots, 3/4 teaspoon salt, pepper, thyme and broth, stir and cook medium heat, bring to a boil then cook until thickened and heated through, 2-3 minutes.
4. Place a disc on your work surface. Take 2 tablespoon of the turkey mixture and place in the middle of each disc. Using a pastry brush, place the egg wash on the outer edges of the disc. Fold the disc over and gently press the edges to create a seal. Use a fork and press around the edges to seal.
5. Brush the egg wash over one side of each of the empanadas.
6. Spray the baking sheet with oil, bake 350F 26 to 30 minutes, until golden.

Air Fryer:

1. Spray the basket with oil to prevent sticking, transfer to the basket, in batches and cook at 380F° for 8 minutes, turning half way. Eat hot.

RECIPE BY COOKING LIGHT

The secret to these rich chocolate cookies is not to overbake them. For a gooey, creamy cookie center, pull them out of the oven when they are still a bit glossy.

Ingredients

- 6.75 ounces unbleached all-purpose flour (about 1 1/2 cups)
- 6 tablespoons unsweetened cocoa
- 3/8 teaspoon salt
- 3/4 cup sugar
- 1/4 cup unsalted butter, softened
- 2 tablespoons canola oil
- 2 large eggs
- 1/4 teaspoon vanilla extract
- 1/2 cup bittersweet chocolate chips

Nutritional Information

How to Make It

Step 1

Weigh or lightly spoon flour into dry measuring cups; level with a knife. Combine flour, cocoa, and salt in a bowl, stirring with a whisk.

Step 2

Place sugar, butter, and oil in a bowl; beat with a mixer at medium speed until well combined (about 5 minutes). Add eggs, 1 at a time, beating well after each addition. Add vanilla; beat 1 minute. Add flour mixture to butter mixture, beating at low speed just until combined. Add chocolate; beat at low speed just until combined. Cover with plastic wrap; chill 30 minutes.

Step 3

Preheat oven to 350°.

Step 4

Drop dough by 1 1/2 tablespoonfuls 2 inches apart onto baking sheets lined with parchment paper. Bake at 350° for 8 minutes or until almost set. Cool on pan 2 minutes or until firm. Remove cookies from pan; cool on wire racks.

Gingerbread Cookies

Gingerbread cookies from Grandma Zakrzewicz

In a large bowl, cream together:

1 c shortening

2 c sugar

2 eggs

Add:

1 c molasses

1 c sour cream

In another large bowl, combine:

6 c flour

2 tsp baking soda

1 tsp cloves

1 tsp nutmeg

1 tsp cinnamon

1 tsp salt

Gradually add dry ingredients to the sugar mixture. Refrigerate at least 4 hours, or overnight. Roll out on floured surface. Cut into shapes. Bake at 350 for 10 minutes.

I always use parchment paper when making these or sugar cookies. It saves your shapes! My oven only takes 9 minutes. This is definitely a soft, bread type cookie, so I try to not over bake them! Also, I only work with about 1/3 of the dough at a time, and leave the rest in the fridge. When it gets warm, the dough tends to tear.

dutch baby pancake recipe

5 from 2 reviews

- Yield: 6

DESCRIPTION

Use an 12 inch in diameter pan for this recipe as the batch makes a very large pancake. If you have a smaller pan, feel free to cut the recipe in half.

- 1 cup milk
- 1 cup flour
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 4 large eggs
- 8 tbsp butter ((See notes below))

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Preheat your oven to 425 degrees.
2. Whisk together the milk, flour, sugar, and eggs until smooth. Really froth this mixture up! The more frothy, the puffier the pancake will be.
3. In a large skillet (12 x 9) (like a cast iron pan if you have one), melt the 8 tbsp of butter over medium heat until it is bubbly, and tilt the pan until the butter coats the bottom and sides of the pan.
4. Pour the pancake batter into the skillet and let it cook for about 1 minute, without stirring!
5. Then place the skillet into the oven and bake for about 15 minutes.
6. The pancake is done when it is golden brown and puffed up.
7. Once the pancake is done serve immediately (while it's puffed up), because it will shrink quickly!
8. Serve with syrup or cinnamon sugar.

NOTES

Feel free to use less butter if you prefer. We always use 8 tbsp, but if you find this to be too much for your liking, use 4 – 6 tbsp.

Dairy-free Cream of Chicken Soup

Sunday, January 20, 2019 1:11 PM

by My Wise Mom

Prep Time: 5 minutes

Cook Time: 15 minutes

Keywords: base dairy-free egg-free soy-free peanut-free gluten-free flour chicken broth

Ingredients (4 cups, approx 2 cans)

- 2-1/2 cups organic chicken broth
- 1-1/2 cup almond milk
- 3/4 cups flour (gluten-free, if needed)
- 1 teaspoon real salt
- 1/2 teaspoon pepper
- 1/2 teaspoon parsley
- 1/2 teaspoon onion powder
- 1/2 teaspoon garlic powder
- 1/2 teaspoon oregano
- 1/4 teaspoon basil
- 1/4 cup cooked mushrooms (optional)
- 1/4 cup cooked celery (optional)

Instructions

Combine the chicken broth with 1/2 cup of the almond milk in a large saucepan. Bring to a low boil.

Whisk the flour and seasonings into the remaining cup milk until smooth. The mixture will be thick.

Pour the milk/flour/seasoning mixture into the broth mixture in the saucepan and reduce heat to low. Stir/whisk continuously as it simmers to avoid lumps.

Continue whisking 5-10 minutes until the mixture is smooth and thick.

Fudgiest Dairy-Free Chocolate Cake

by Crystal Hatch • featured in 4 Classic Desserts Made Vegan

Print

Inspired by minimalistbaker.com

Ingredients

for 10 servings

FROSTING

- 30 oz full-fat coconut milk, 2 cans
- 3 cups dairy-free chocolate chunk
- ¼ cup coconut oil, melted
- 2 cups powdered sugar

CAKE

- 3 cups whole wheat flour
- 1 ½ cups dark cocoa powder
- 1 cup sugar
- 1 tablespoon baking soda
- 1 ½ teaspoons baking powder
- 1 pinch salt
- 3 cups almond milk
- 1 cup coconut oil, melted
- 1 ½ cups applesauce
- 1 ½ cups maple syrup
- 1 tablespoon apple cider vinegar
- 1 tablespoon vanilla extract
- berry, of choice, for garnish

ADVERTISEMENT

Preparation

1. In a microwave-safe measuring cup, or in a small pot on the stove, heat the coconut milk until hot, but not boiling (about 2 minutes in the microwave).
2. Place the dairy-free chocolate in a large bowl and pour the hot coconut milk over it, allowing the milk to melt the chocolate. Mix well to combine.
3. Once the chocolate is melted, add the coconut oil and powdered sugar. Beat with a hand mixer or whisk until smooth.
4. Cover and refrigerate overnight.
5. Preheat the oven to 350°F (180°C). Grease 3 separate 8-inch (20-cm) round cake pans and set aside.
6. In a large bowl, add the whole wheat flour, dark cocoa powder, sugar, baking soda, baking powder, and salt. Whisk to combine and set aside.
7. In a separate large bowl, add the almond milk, coconut oil, applesauce, maple syrup, apple cider vinegar, and vanilla extract. Whisk to combine.
8. In two batches, add the dry mixture to the wet mixture, folding with a spatula until combined. Some clumps are okay.
9. Divide the batter evenly between the 3 pre-greased cake pans and bake for 35–45 minutes, or until a toothpick comes out almost entirely clean. Cool completely.
10. Remove the frosting from the fridge and mix it up well.

11. Choose which cake will be your bottom layer and cover evenly with about 1 cup (115 G) of frosting. Top with the second layer, frosting evenly again. Add the final layer and frost the top and the sides of the cake generously, topping with berries of choice for garnish.
12. Enjoy!

Taco skillet

Tuesday, April 23, 2019 4:30 PM

One Pot Taco Skillet

Serves 4

1 tablespoon oil

1 poblano, deseeded and diced

1/2 yellow onion, diced

3/4 lb ground beef

2 tablespoons taco seasoning

2 cloves garlic, minced

1/2 cup white rice

14oz can fire roasted tomatoes

1/4 cup water

Toppings: Shredded cheese, avocado, cilantro, lime juice, tortilla chips

Heat a tablespoon of oil in a skillet over medium heat. Add the onion and poblano peppers and saute 5-6 minutes, until soft and beginning to brown.

Add the ground beef, taco seasoning, and minced garlic. Cook until the meat begins to brown, about 3 minutes.

Add the rice, stirring to mix into the beef and veggie mixture. Add the tomatoes and their juices along with 1/4 cup water. Cover the skillet and simmer for 20 minutes. Avoid opening the lid until the end.

Remove from the heat. Serve topped with cheese, avocado, cilantro, a squeeze of lime, and tortilla chips on the side.

Scotch Eggs

Thursday, December 24, 2020 5:31 PM

A hard-boiled egg encased in sausage and bread crumbs and then deep-fried may seem like a product of modern pub culture, but the Scotch egg was invented by London department store Fortnum & Mason in 1738. This recipe comes from kitchen assistant Lucy-Ruth Hathaway, who hails from London, England.

Yield: serves 6

Ingredients

6 whole eggs in their shells, plus 1, lightly beaten
1 lb. ground pork sausage
1 tbsp. Worcestershire sauce
1 tbsp. English mustard
2 tsp. cornstarch
1/4 tsp. ground mace
2 leaves sage, finely chopped
2 sprigs thyme, finely chopped
Kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper
Canola oil, for frying
1/4 cup cup milk
1/2 cup cup flour
2 cups panko bread crumbs

Instructions

Place 6 eggs in a 2-qt. saucepan and cover by 1" with cold water. Place over high heat and bring to boil; cover, remove from heat, and let sit for 6 minutes. Drain eggs, and transfer to a bowl of ice water; let sit for 5 minutes. Drain eggs, and peel and discard shells; set aside.

Combine sausage, Worcestershire, mustard, cornstarch, mace, sage, and thyme in a bowl; season with salt and pepper and mix until evenly combined. Divide mixture into 6 equal portions, and form each portion around each cooked egg to cover completely. Place on a plate and refrigerate for 30 minutes.

Pour oil to a depth of 2" in a 6-qt. Dutch oven and heat over medium-high heat until a deep-fry thermometer reads 350°. Combine remaining beaten egg with milk in a bowl, and place flour and bread crumbs in separate bowls. Working in batches, coat each meat-covered egg in flour, shaking off excess, and then dip in milk mixture to coat. Dredge in bread crumbs, and then fry until golden brown and meat is cooked through, about 7 minutes. Transfer to paper towels to drain briefly, and let cool for 10 minutes before serving.

1 egg white

Add all ingredients to a shaker tin. “Dry” shake ingredients without ice for five seconds to whip the egg. Add ice, seal tins and shake hard for 10 to 12 seconds. Strain into coupe or martini glass—it’ll come out white at first, and the color will emerge over the course of a minute under a paper-smooth head of foam. Express a lemon peel over the top of the foam for aroma and discard and decorate the foam with a few drops or dashes of Angostura Bitters.

Baked oatmeal- Carrot Cake

Monday, January 10, 2022 9:19 AM

This is one of my favorite go to breakfasts ~ baked oatmeal. I've posted so many varieties but this one in particular is worth mentioning again. Carrot Cake! I love sneaking veggies in everything. This most definitely smelled like carrot cake baking from the cinnamon and raisins to the butter extract. Divine! My original recipe for peanut butter banana baked oats calls for 1/3 c maple syrup. My hubby does not things sweet (which I do not understand 😊) so I opted to leave out the maple and just let the banana and raisins sweeten this dish. Then if anyone wants it slightly sweeter they can drizzle maple syrup on top. 🍌 I served this at the beach this summer to our family and it was a big hit! Here's what I did:

- 2 c thick rolled oats
- 2 carrots shredded
- 1 c raisins
- 1/2 c walnuts
- 2 tsp cinnamon
- 1 tsp baking powder
- 1/2 tsp salt

Mix well.

In a blender combine the following:

- 1 large banana
- 1 c plant based milk
- 1 Tbsp flax meal
- 1/2 c almond butter
- 1 tsp vanilla extract
- 2 tsp butter extract (optional)

Blend well. Pour over oat mixture and stir. Pour into baking dish and bake at 350° for 30 minutes.

You can get creative with the spices. I was pretty simple this time but certainly ginger, nutmeg, clove would all be good additions!

Energy Bites Recipe

These protein energy bites will change the way you think about healthy snacking!

Prep Time 10 mins

Resting Time 30 mins

Total Time 40 mins

Course: Snack

Cuisine: American

Keyword: 30 minutes or less, healthy

Servings: 24 balls

Calories: 112kcal

Ingredients

- 1 cup oatmeal {I used old fashioned organic oats}
- ½ cup gluten-free granola mix
- ½ cup ground flaxseed
- ½ cup natural peanut butter
- ½ cup walnuts {or almonds}
- ¼ cup raisins or dried cranberries
- ½ to ¾ cup maple syrup {you could also use 1/3 cup honey}*
- 1 Tbsp natural cocoa
- 1 tsp vanilla

Instructions

- Combine all ingredients {in no particular order} in a mixing bowl and mix until well blended.
- Place in the fridge for 30-60 minutes to let them set up.
- Remove from fridge and roll into golf ball sized balls.
- Enjoy!

Notes

- I chose not to use honey this go around because I've read that honey shouldn't be consumed by children under 1 years of age and I am breastfeeding and didn't want to chance anything. So maple syrup it was and it worked great!

Total Time: 30 minutes
serves: 4
Ingredients
2 skinless boneless chicken breasts (about 1½ pounds total)
½ cup all-purpose flour
Kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper
¼ cup extra-virgin olive oil
6 tablespoons unsalted butter, divided
3 cloves of garlic, thinly sliced
⅓ cup dry white wine
¾ cup chicken stock
¼ cup fresh lemon juice
1 tablespoon drained capers
Handful flat-leaf parsley, chopped
Directions
Cut each chicken breast in half horizontally. Working with one at a time, place each piece between two sheets of parchment paper, and use a meat tenderizer or rolling pin to pound to an even ¼ to ⅝ inch thickness. On a large plate, combine flour, a little salt and a few generous cranks of pepper. Dredge each piece of chicken through the seasoned flour. Heat oil in a large skillet over medium-high heat. Add 2 chicken pieces and sauté until golden brown, about 3 minutes per side. Transfer to a plate and repeat with remaining chicken, adding a splash more oil if needed. Set cooked chicken aside on a plate somewhere warm. Reduce heat under large skillet to low. Add 3 tablespoons butter and garlic, and gently sauté until golden, 1-2 minutes. Add wine and reduce by half, 1-2 minutes. Add stock and cook to reduce, 4 minutes. Stir in lemon juice, capers, remaining butter and parsley. Give the skillet a shimmy and stir to help the sauce emulsify. Let sauce thicken slightly, about 2 minutes, then return chicken to pan and toss gently to coat in sauce. Season as needed. Serve chicken in skillet or on a warmed serving platter, with sauce poured overtop.

Author:

Owen Quirk @aweebitquirkybbq

Ingredients

- 2/3 cup bourbon
- 2 tbsp soy sauce
- 6 tbsp brown sugar
- 4 tbsp apple cider vinegar
- 6 cloves garlic, minced
- 2 tbsp molasses
- 2 tbsp ginger, grated
- 2 tbsp Dijon mustard
- 1 tbsp cornstarch (mixed with 1 tbsp water for slurry)
- 3 thick cut pork chops
- 6 slices bacon

Sweet Potatoes

- 2 extra large (or 4 large) sweet potatoes
- 3 tbsp melted butter
- 2 tbsp Demerara Sugar (or Brown Sugar)
- ½-¾ tbsp Cajun seasoning

Directions

1. Mix all ingredients except the cornstarch, bacon and pork chops into a small sauce pan.
2. Heat until brown sugar has dissolved and ingredients are mixed well.
3. Divide this mixture in 2 equal parts and let them cool.
4. Once cool, marinate pork chops in one of the divided mixtures for at least 4 hours or overnight.
5. Light Pit Barrel® according to directions, cook with rod out.
6. Remove Pork Chops from marinade and wrap in bacon, securing with tooth pics. You may need only 1 slice of bacon per pork chop, depending on the size of your chops and length of bacon.

7. Grill marinated pork chops until desired doneness, at least 145 degrees internal temperature.
8. While the pork chops are cooking, add the second half of the divided mixture into sauce pan.
9. Whisk in Cornstarch slurry and then bring to gentle simmer until sauce is thickened to create Brown Sugar Bourbon Sauce.
10. Plate cooked pork chop and spoon some of the Brown Sugar Bourbon sauce on top.

Sweet Potatoes

1. Cut sweet potatoes in hasselback style.
2. Place sliced potatoes in cast iron pan
3. Pour melted butter over potatoes, trying to get some of the butter into the cuts in the potatoes.
4. Mix sugar and Cajun seasoning and sprinkle over the potatoes, working it into the cuts in the potatoes.
5. Place cast iron pan on grate in the Pit Barrel® Cooker and smoke until potatoes are tender with an internal temperature of approx. 210°
6. Remove from Pit Barrel®, serve and enjoy!

Easy Beef
Stroganof...

Beef Stroganoff Recipe

Ready in just 30 minutes, this simplified beef stroganoff is a delicious twist on the traditional recipe. Made with quality ingredients, it's a satisfying meal the whole family is sure to love.

🕒 Prep: 5-10 mins Cook: 15-20 mins Total: 30 mins

👤 Servings: 4 (4 cups)

1x

2x

3x

INGREDIENTS

- 1 tablespoon avocado oil or olive oil
- 1 lb lean ground beef (I use 90/10 or 93/7)
- 8 ounces of cremini or button mushrooms, sliced
- ½ medium onion, diced (about ¾ cup)
- 3 garlic cloves, minced (about 1 tablespoon)
- ¼ teaspoon fine salt, more to taste
- ¼ teaspoon black pepper, more to taste
- 2 tablespoons all-purpose flour*
- 2 teaspoons Worcestershire sauce*
- 1 tablespoon Dijon mustard
- 1 cup low-sodium beef broth
- ½ cup full-fat sour cream*
- 1 ½ cups uncooked egg noodles,* cooked according to package directions and drained
- Optional for garnish: fresh parsley, minced

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Add the oil to a large skillet over medium heat. Once the oil is hot, add the ground beef.
2. Brown the beef for about 5 minutes, breaking it up with a wooden spoon until it's about 80% browned. It's OK for some of the beef to still be pink.
3. Add the mushrooms, onions, garlic, salt, and pepper to the beef. Continue to cook, stirring occasionally, for another 5-7 minutes or until the onions are translucent and the mushrooms are cooked down.
4. Sprinkle the flour over the ground beef and sliced mushrooms. Use a stirring spoon to mix it together.
5. Add the Worcestershire sauce or coconut aminos, Dijon mustard, and beef broth. Stir until well combined.
6. Increase the heat to medium-high and bring the mixture to a simmer for 3-4 minutes, or until the sauce thickens slightly.
7. Remove the skillet from the heat and stir in the sour cream. Let everything sit for 5-10 minutes in the skillet before serving. This time allows the sauce to thicken further.
8. Gently toss the beef and sauce with the egg noodles or serve the stroganoff over the noodles.

9. Garnish with minced parsley. Season with additional salt and pepper to taste.

NOTES

*May use gluten-free flour, if needed.

*May substitute 2 tablespoons coconut aminos.

*May opt for dairy-free sour cream or a plant-based Greek yogurt instead.

*May substitute cooked rice or gluten-free noodles of choice.

Traditional Irish Stew

Sunday, February 1, 2026 1:27 PM

Ingredients

- 1 pound beef, (chuck shoulder, or stew meat – could also use lamb), cut into 1 inch chunks
- salt and pepper
- 1 to 2 tablespoons avocado oil
- 1 white, or yellow onion, cut into large chunks
- 4 cloves garlic, minced
- 3 tablespoons butter
- 3 tablespoons white rice flour (or sub all purpose flour)
- 3 cups low sodium beef broth (see notes)
- A few sprigs of thyme (or sub 1/2 teaspoon dried thyme)
- 16 ounces mushrooms, washed and quartered
- 4 stalks celery, cut into large chunks
- 5 carrots, peeled and cut into large chunks
- 10 red potatoes (2 pounds), cut into big chunks
- 1 teaspoon kosher salt
- black pepper, to taste
- Fresh parsley, for garnish

Instructions

1. Prepare: If your stew meat doesn't already come cut up, cut it at this time. Pat it dry with a paper towel. Season with salt and pepper. Also, chop your onion, and mince the garlic, set aside.
2. Sear the meat: Heat a large, heavy-bottomed stew pot, or Dutch oven, with a tight fitting lid, over medium heat. Heat 1 tablespoon of the oil. Add 1/3 of the beef chunks to the skillet. Sear the meat for 2 to 3 minutes on one side, flip, and sear for another 1 minute. Remove the beef to another dish. Repeat, until the remaining beef is seared. NOTE: you don't want to add all the beef at once, otherwise it will overcrowd the pan, and the beef will steam. I seared mine in three batches. Only use the second tablespoon of oil if the pan gets dry.
3. Sauté: once all the beef has been seared, and removed from the pan, add the onion and a little kosher salt. Sauté the onions for 3 minutes, or until they begin to look tender. Add the garlic and sauté for 1 more minute.
4. Make a roux: Melt the butter and add the rice flour, or all purpose flour, and cook the flour for 1 to 2 minutes, or until the flour looks lightly browned.
5. Deglaze: Once the roux has cooked slowly whisk about a 1/2 of a cup of the broth to start with. Then, use a wooden spoon to scrape the bottom of the pan so you get all the beef bits released from the pan. Stir in the remaining broth, along with the beef, and any of its juices. Add the thyme sprigs (I like to tie mine into a bundle with kitchen twine to make it easier to fish out later).
6. Simmer the beef: Cover and simmer for 20 minutes.

7. Cut up remaining veggies: While the beef is simmering you can cut up the remaining veggies as instructed above.
8. Simmer the mushrooms: Add the mushrooms into the stew and simmer for 15 minutes, or until the mushrooms have reduced in size.
9. Simmer the carrots and celery: Add the carrots and celery and simmer another 10 minutes, with the lid off. NOTE: at this point there won't look like much liquid compared to the amount of veggies in the stew. Don't worry, the veggies will release their liquid as they cook and you will end up with the right amount of liquid for a stew-like dish.
10. Cook the potatoes: Stir in the salt and pepper, add the potatoes and simmer for another 10 to 12 minutes, covered, or until the potatoes are fork tender.
11. Finish: Fish out the thyme leaves, and remove. Taste and adjust the seasoning as needed.
12. Serve: Ladle the stew into serving bowls. Garnish with parsley, if desired. Serve immediately. Store leftovers in an air tight container in the fridge for up to 1 week. The stew is even better the next day.
